

Thurber Insurance Agency Represents General Co.

Fifteen years of growth in the Northwest, and an annual dividend of 20 per cent. paid back to policy holders—that's the record of the General Fire Insurance Co. of America, with offices in Seattle. Bruce E. Thurber has been local agent for the company for the past five years, is now dealing in it exclusively.

Mr. Thurber, president of the Clark County Insurance Agents' association, was recently appointed agent in this county for the Western Life Insurance Co. of Montana.

Liberty Theatre in Camas Is Fine, modern Showhouse

Camas now boasts as modern a theatre as any town of its size in the state. The Liberty, formerly the Granada, redecorated recently after its purchase by Frederick Mercy, junior and senior, of Yakima, owners of theatres in Eastern Washington cities, displays the last word in theatre technique.

Manager of the Liberty is Edgar Mercy, brought up in the show business. Before taking over the business here, he spent a year working on moving picture lots in Hollywood.

Frederick Mercy Sr., president of the theatre organization, has spent 25 years in the show business since opening his first theatre in Yakima. The Liberty theatre here was the 17th in the chain. Bookings for this showhouse and its sister theatres in Eastern Washington is handled by Frederick Mercy Jr., with his offices in Seattle.

1938